From the Preacher's Desk

"Updates..." - David Olmos

First and foremost, thank you for all the prayers concerning Kaylee's previous surgery to remove her tonsils and adenoids. She has loved every card, call, text, and gift that she has been given. Continue to pray for her as she continues to recover. She gets a little better every day, being able to introduce more solid foods; however, she's still in a considerable amount of pain and emotionally hates that she can't be her normal self. We tell her to pray and remember it's only a matter of time until it all improves! I think that's something we could all be reminded of, as we go through daily struggles.

I need to correct my Bible study this past Sunday morning. I told all those who were in class to read Genesis chapter 26 but failed to remember that we aren't done with chapter 25. I was thrown off by how I presented the last three chapters; that being said, for this Sunday, April 16th, PLEASE READ GENESIS CHAPTER 25! Focus especially on verses 19-26 the story of Jacob and Esau and think deeply about what you think it means that God chose one over the other! Again, our Bible study for this coming Sunday is on Genesis 25:19-26 and our question sheets are already in the foyer ready to be picked up if you choose to get a head start!

Don't forget that this Friday, April 14th, we have our Family Movie Night in the fellowship hall. We will begin at 6:00 p.m. with some singing and a devotional, and the movie will begin immediately afterward. We will be watching Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory starring Gene Wilder. Feel free to invite your whole family, and bring comfy chairs if you don't want to sit on the ones we already have. To those who have asked about friends and neighbors, you are more than welcome to invite them. While we don't usually ask people to "sign up," tell us if you plan on bringing a larger group than normal, so we can ensure plenty of yummy food and snacks.

There is still a lot of work to be done here at the building concerning upkeep, cleaning, and events that we have coming up. I am currently organizing, cleaning, updating, and painting three rooms at the moment, and could use some help. If you have time to spare, any day of the week, please let me know. I don't have to be here for you to help. Most everything we have is "tedious" work; I just don't have enough hours in the day, and days in the week to get it done as quickly as I had hoped. I appreciate those who have already reached out and helped, but the more the merrier. You can stop by the office, catch me at services, or text/call my cell phone (979-997-4461), and let me know you can help. My goal is to have all the rooms done and ready to go by the end of the month, and I know that's possible if I have volunteers! Thanks ahead of time for your sacrifice!

Lastly, don't forget we have our Wednesday Evening services each week beginning at 6 p.m. with a meal, (this week it's lasagna)! We also have our Wednesday Night with the Master activities and singing, a devo, and Bible studies for all ages. We'd love to see more of our congregation at these events. I know the middle of the week is tough, especially for those who work but think of the good it will do for your spiritual body being with your spiritual family. Another way to think about it...when you don't come, what effect does that have on your spiritual self. We need that time to refill our batteries, otherwise, we might fall into temptations we never would've given into in the past. Just some food for thought! God bless!

This coming Sunday, April 16, we will be having a special devotional at the home of Dan and Roberta Talbot to debrief our Camp Hensel Easter Retreat. Whether you are a youth or an adult who attended our retreat this past weekend, we'd love to have you join us.

Camp Bandina will be taking place June 4-10. If you would like to attend and have not already signed up, here is the link to register:

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Honor our seniors! This is a time for sharing. Please pick up cards in the foyer and write words of encouragement to our graduating seniors. This year we will honor three seniors: Gracie Lenz, Hallie Ratcliff, and Garrett Buchanan.
